Post Conference Report

WCMRP-2025 contributed to following SDGs

Foreword

Dear Participants,

We are delighted to share the key highlights and impactful outcomes of the "1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)" which was held on 19 - 20 Jun, 2025 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

Centred around the theme "Integrating Knowledge Across Disciplines for Global Impact: Innovations, Challenges and Sustainable Solutions" the conference convened a vibrant assembly of international experts, scholars, and practitioners. It provided a pivotal platform for knowledge exchange, innovation sharing, and collaborative engagement focused on tackling critical global issues

The event saw an impressive level of participation, with over 25 delegates and more than 35 individuals joining through the live stream. This hybrid format allowed us to reach a wider academic and research audience, encouraging vibrant discussions and fostering valuable collaborations across disciplines.

The 1st WCMRP – 2025 functioned as a significant academic platform, enabling scholars, educators, and researchers from a broad range of disciplines to present advanced findings, engage in critical discourse, and promote interdisciplinary research collaboration

We sincerely thank the universities, research institutions and academic professionals whose unwavering support and collaboration were significant in the success of this conference. We especially acknowledge the academic partners NEUST, Philippines and SMVITM, India, esteemed professors and external reviewers for their rigorous evaluation and insightful feedback, which significantly enhanced the quality of the submissions. Our heartfelt appreciation extends to all the authors for sharing their pioneering research and contributing to a rich and impactful academic discussion. We look forward to fostering continued knowledge exchange, collaboration and innovation in future editions of this conference.

Dr. Geethalakshmi R
MD & Founder, CERADA.

1. Conference Summary

Conference Name: "1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)"

Theme: "Integrating Knowledge Across Disciplines for Global Impact: Innovations, Challenges and Sustainable Solutions"

Date: 19 – 20 Jun, 2025

Organized by: Nueva Ecija University of Science and Technology (NEUST), Philippines, Shri Madhwa Vadiraja Institute of Technology & Management (SMVITM), India and Confworld Educational Research and Development Association (CERADA).

No. of Organizing Committee Members: 40

No. of Editors/Reviewers: 10

No. of Speakers: 14

No. of Abstracts Received: 80

No. of Participants Registered: 23

No. of Attendees: 50

1.1 Conference Overview

"1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)" serves as a collaborative platform for researchers, academicians, professionals and students to engage in insightful discussions and share cutting-edge research findings, advancements and best practices in the field of interdisciplinary solutions that tackle challenges across various domains, including science, technology, engineering, education and humanities and more. Discover cutting-edge research, explore transformative ideas and engage with emerging technologies aimed at solving today's most pressing global challenges. From inspiring keynote speeches to thought-provoking discussions and interactive sessions, WCMRP-2025 offers a vibrant space to connect, contribute and create impact.

At the 1st WCMRP-2025 which was held on 19-20 Jun,2025 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia participants from various professional, academics and educational backgrounds came together to foster collaboration, networks and contribute to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.

The conference exemplified intellectual diversity, offering in-depth engagement with advanced research practices, technological progress, and educational innovation. It effectively bridged the gap between academia, industry and society, promoting interdisciplinary partnerships and meaningful discourse.

WCMRP-2025 stood as a testament to its vision of transforming global education by cultivating an inspiring and collaborative atmosphere where thought leaders could ignite meaningful progress. The conference went beyond traditional participation encouraging active involvement in advancing academic excellence and nurturing a spirit of innovation.

Driven by a mission to spark creativity and connect diverse disciplines, WCMRP-2025 offered a truly enriching experience for all. Through robust knowledge exchange, interdisciplinary dialogue, and strong global partnerships, the conference left a lasting impact on the fields of education, research, and innovation.

1.2 Conference Theme

The WCMRP-2025 Conference embraced the theme, "Integrating Knowledge Across Disciplines for Global Impact: Innovations, Challenges and Sustainable Solutions". This theme underscored the critical role of interdisciplinary strategies in tackling global challenges, showcasing the latest advancements, addressing persistent issues and exploring future possibilities across various fields.

This theme emphasizes the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration and innovative strategies in addressing pressing global issues. This theme highlights the importance of merging insights from various fields to tackle global challenges, fostering resilience, sustainable innovation and impactful solutions through collaborative research and application. By fostering partnerships among researchers from various fields, the conference aims to generate impactful solutions that contribute to sustainable development and enhance societal resilience. Participants are encouraged to explore diverse methodologies and share insights that can drive progress across disciplines.

1.3 Objectives & Scope of the Conference

The primary objective of the 1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025) is to create a dynamic platform that unites academics, researchers, industry experts and students to delve into transformative innovations and evolving trends in multidisciplinary research.

Key Objectives of WCMRP-2025

- Advancing Sustainable Practices: Encourage in-depth discussions on environmentally responsible agricultural methods that prioritize resource efficiency and ecological balance.

At WCMRP-2025, our mission is to bring together brilliant minds from across disciplines to ignite innovation, embrace emerging technologies and address global challenges with forward-thinking solutions. Here's what we strive to achieve:

- Ignite Meaningful Discussion
- Shape a Better Tomorrow
- Recognize Innovators & Game-changers
- Promote Ethical Innovation
- Inspire Emerging Leaders
- Solve Global Challenges Together
- Pursue Excellence & Best Practices
- Build Meaningful Connections
- Synergize for Global Impact

3. Welcome & Introduction

A very warm and heartfelt welcome to each one of you to the '1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)'. This conference is proudly organized by Nueva Ecija University of Science and Technology (NEUST), Philippines, Shri Madhwa Vadiraja Institute of Technology & Management (SMVITM), India and the Confworld Educational Research and Development Association.

It is truly a moment of pride and privilege to inaugurate this significant gathering, organized by the Confworld Educational Research and Development Association (CERADA) in association with two distinguished academic institutions Nueva Ecija University of Science and Technology (NEUST), Philippines and the Shri Madhwa Vadiraja Institute of Technology & Management (SMVITM), India.

The theme of WCMRP-2025 is "Integrating Knowledge Across Disciplines for Global Impact: Innovations, Challenges and Sustainable Solutions". As scholars, scientists, educators, policy makers and advocates, we are united by a common purpose: to innovate, exchange ideas and take meaningful action toward building resilient agricultural systems and ensuring food security for future generations.

The theme of this conference, "Integrating Knowledge Across Disciplines for Global Impact: Innovations, Challenges and Sustainable Solutions". As we navigate through a rapidly evolving world marked by unprecedented global challenges from climate change to technological disruption, from healthcare reform to inclusive education it is essential to embrace a collaborative, cross-disciplinary approach.

WCMRP stands as a global platform where ideas converge, where the boundaries between disciplines blur and where innovation thrives. Over the next 2 days, we will explore groundbreaking research, engage in critical dialogue and foster collaborative networks that transcend geography and subject boundaries.

To all our keynote speakers and presenters, we thank you for bringing your insights and passion to this platform. To our participants and institutional partners, your presence enriches this gathering and fuels the spirit of academic exchange and cooperation.

Let this conference not only be a space for learning, but also a launchpad for meaningful partnerships and actionable outcomes that contribute to the sustainable development of our communities and the world.

Once again, welcome to WCMRP-2025. Let's make this a memorable and impactful experience for all.

6. Inaugural Programme

The inaugural session of the "1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)" held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia on 19th and 20th Jun 2025, served as a pivotal moment in setting the stage for the entire event. This opening ceremony offered an ideal platform to present the conference theme, outline its objectives and introduce key stakeholders and dignitaries.

The program commenced with a series of thought-provoking inaugural addresses, followed by the formal unveiling of the conference proceedings and an overview of key Institutional Membership Benefits. Crafted to offer a warm welcome to attendees, the session set the stage for meaningful intellectual exchange and collaboration. It also served as a tribute to the dedicated individuals and organizations whose contributions were influential to the success of the conference.

7. Conference Proceeding book release

The proceedings of the "1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)" serve as a comprehensive collection of research papers and presentations delivered during the event. This publication captures the innovative ideas, discussions and advancements explored at the conference, providing valuable insights into current trends and future directions in Engineering and Technical Advancements, Physical and Life Science, Business & Management Studies, Emerging Technologies & Education, Social Sciences and Humanities and Governance and Policy Innovation.

On behalf of the organizing committee, the official release of these proceedings marks a significant milestone in documenting the meaningful contributions made by the participants of WCMRP-2025.

Best Innovation Research	Ajesh	Design and Implementation of a Controller-Based Automatic Cooking Machine for Time-Efficient and Quality Food Preparation

11. Conference - Conclusion Summary

The "1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)" held on 19- 20 June 2025 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia brought together a dynamic assembly of experts, researchers, practitioners and sustainability advocates from across the globe. Centered around the theme "Integrating Knowledge Across Disciplines for Global Impact: Innovations, Challenges and Sustainable Solutions" the conference created a vibrant platform for interdisciplinary discussion, knowledge exchange and strategic collaboration aimed at advancing the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Key Highlights

The event opened with an inspiring keynote address by Dr. Geethalakshmi R, Managing Director and Founder of CERADA, who underscored the critical role of education, innovation and global collaboration in empowering researchers to make a sustainable impact. She highlighted the relevance of multidisciplinary conferences in strengthening academic engagement and discussed global academic benchmarking through QS University Rankings and Times Higher Education (THE) World University Rankings. The keynote sessions that followed showcased significant breakthroughs and emerging trends in Engineering, Science & Technology and Social science and Humanities.

Research Presentations

The conference featured over 23 research presentations, spanning diverse themes across Engineering, Science & Technology and Social science and Humanities. These sessions highlighted cutting-edge findings and sparked engaging discussions, offering a platform for researchers to share innovations and receive valuable feedback.

Networking Opportunities

WCMRP-2025 facilitated dynamic networking opportunities through virtual sessions. These interactions enabled participants to build meaningful connections with fellow researchers, industry professionals and potential collaborators. The sessions were highly appreciated for fostering interdisciplinary engagement and sparking new partnerships.

Key Achievements and Outcomes

- Several collaborative projects and academic partnerships were initiated.
- The conference proceedings, including abstracts of research papers and keynote addresses are scheduled for publication, ensuring broader dissemination of knowledge.
- Discussions on future conferences included suggestions for expanded thematic areas and interactive formats to further increase participation, innovation and impact.

Closing Remarks

During the closing session, CERADA extended heartfelt gratitude to all participants, academic partners and organizers. The success of the conference in meeting its goals was highlighted, with a strong emphasis on the ongoing importance of collaboration and innovation. Attendees departed with a sense of achievement and a renewed determination to push boundaries in their respective fields.

The conference concluded on an uplifting note, with participants feeling inspired and eager to apply the knowledge and insights gained to their future work. The event not only celebrated the accomplishments of the present but also laid the groundwork for future research and development, setting a clear vision for continued progress and collaboration.

12. Vote of Thanks

Dear Researchers, Academicians and Students,

As we conclude this impactful "1st World Conference on Multidisciplinary Research and Practices (WCMRP-2025)", it is with deep appreciation and gratitude that we extend a heartfelt vote of thanks on behalf of the organizing committee. This conference has been a rich confluence of ideas, research and meaningful dialogue and its success is owed to the collective effort of many dedicated individuals and institutions.

First and foremost, our sincere thanks go to our distinguished speakers. Your insightful presentations and thought-provoking discussions have been central to the success of this event. You have inspired us to approach the pressing issues in Engineering, Science & Technology with renewed curiosity and commitment.

A special note of appreciation is extended to our organizing committee and volunteers. Your behind-the-scenes coordination, meticulous planning and unwavering dedication have been the backbone of this conference. Your efforts have ensured that every detail was attended to, creating a seamless and enriching experience for all.

To all our participants, thank you for your active engagement, thoughtful questions and willingness to share your perspectives. Your enthusiasm and commitment to advancing knowledge have added immense value to the proceedings.

We also acknowledge the venue team and technical staff for their professionalism and hospitality, which provided us with a welcoming and conducive environment to exchange ideas and build new connections.

In closing, we express our deepest appreciation to everyone who contributed, in any capacity, to the success of this conference. Whether as a speaker, partner, participant or volunteer your support and collaboration have been persuasive. We look forward to continuing these conversations and building on this momentum in future conferences.

Thank you once again, and we wish you continued success in all your academic and professional endeavors.

13. General Comments & Feedbacks

Overall Comments from Participants

- The conference was organized and coordinated with remarkable efficiency and professionalism.
- Sessions delivered by the speakers were insightful and intellectually stimulating.
- It was truly an outstanding international conference, exceeding expectations in many aspects.
- The panel discussion was highly engaging, fostering active participation and idea exchange.
- Keynote addresses were impactful and delivered valuable perspectives worth reflecting upon.
- Any concerns or issues raised were handled promptly and thoughtfully by the organizing team.
